Auguſt 5. Several [illegible] have offered to advance a further Sum of Money, ſhould Occaſion require, to be employed againſt the French in Germany.

We are aſſured that Admiral Saunders is going with a Squadron into the Weſt-Indies.

Tho' the King of Pruſſia has miſcarried in Moravia, his March from Olmutz to Konigſgratz in ten Days (conſidering he had 90,000 light Troops hovering about him) is reckoned a Maſter-piece of Generalſhip; the Diſtance between thoſe two Places (making Allowances for Windings and Turnings in the Roads) being above 100 Miles.

Aug. 12. The Expreſs which arrived on Thurſday from Commodore Howe, brought the following Particulars.

"On Sunday, Auguſt 6, at Seven in the Evening, Commodore Howe's Squadron anchored in Cherburg Road, and at Eleven the Bombs began to play upon the Town.

"The next Day, at Seven in the Morning the Fleet got under Way, and at Nine anchored in a ſandy Bay, two Leagues to the Weſtward of Cherburg. At Half paſt One, all the Frigates, Sloops, Bombs, and armed Cutters, began to fire on the French Troops behind the Banks of the Sand, computed to be 3000 Horſe and Foot. At Two the Boats landed the Guards and Grenadiers, who formed a Stand with all the Alacrity imaginable. At Three General Drury marched them, and received three Fires before he began the Attack, which was executed with ſuch Spirit and Vigour, that they immediately ran for Shelter behind Hedges and Woods, but were purſued and driven from their ſkulking Places before Night. We had about twenty Men killed and wounded, but amongſt the Enemy there were great Slaughter, and our People took two Pieces of Braſs Cannon, which were brought down to oppoſe our Landing.

"On Tueſday the Horſe and Artillery were landed without Oppoſition, and at Noon the Army marched for Cherburg, having taken two Pair of Colours. At Four the Troops had Poſſeſſion of the Weſt Fort, and blew up the Magazine.

"When the Cutter came away, the Ships were under Sail to attack the Batteries, Cherburg bearing S. W. two Leagues.

"The Prince, Commodore, Generals, Troops, and Seamen, were in high Spirits."

Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived at the Admiralty Office, with an Account of the Landing of our Troops near Cherburg, where they were received by 2500 Horſe and Foot; but our Troops kept up their Fire till they came within a proper Diſtance of the Enemy, and ſoon forced them to retire; after which they marched up to attack the Town.

The Troops took Poſſeſſion of Cherburg on Tueſday laſt. Prince Edward and Commodore Howe entered the Town on Wedneſday. The Shops were all kept open, and the Engliſh pay for what they have. An Hundred Cannon were found in the Place, 26 of which were Braſs, 24 and 18 Pounders, and three Mortars: Theſe laſt and the Braſs Cannon will be brought to England.

There were about 20 Ships in the Harbour, the largeſt of which is the Tyger Privateer of Briſtol, of 36 Guns. The Pier is noble and large, tho' not quite finiſhed. The Commodore had given Orders to demoliſh it, and 3000 Men were employed for that Purpoſe. The Fortifications are very ſtrong.

Some of the French Regulars had ran away 20 Miles in Land: But they were collecting their Troops together, in order to diſturb the Operations of the Engliſh.

We are informed that Yeſterday Afternoon Commodore Howe's Firſt Lieutenant brought an Account, that the Engliſh Colours were flying on every Fort at Cherburg, which Place was taken with little Loſs.

Cherburg is ſeated on the Coaſt of Normandy, between Cape La Hogue and Harfleur, and hath a very commodious Harbour, at the Diſtance of 32 Miles from Coutance to the N. and 24 from Carentan to the N. W. It was the laſt of the Provinces that remained to the Engliſh, and fell into the Hands of the French, under Charles VII. It [illegible] has flowing almoſt round it every Tide, and its Fortifications were eraſed in 1690.

Several Tranſports are taking in Proviſions, Hay, Straw, Oats, &c. for Commodore Howe's Squadron, to which they are to be convoyed by three Ships of War, who are to continue with the Squadron, which we are informed, are ordered to remain upon the French Coaſt, to purſue their Operations, till about the End of next Month.

Private Letters from Hanover, dated the 28th of laſt Month, adviſe, that the Heſſian and Hanoverian Huſſars had again diſpoſſeſſed the French of Marburg, and that the Prince de Soubiſe finding it very difficult to maintain himſelf in the Landgraviate, was making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to march at leaſt a Part, if not the whole of his Army, into the Biſhopric of Paderborn.

By a Dutch Eaſt-India Ship, arrived laſt Week at Amſterdam, there are Letters arrived which give an Account, that all the Engliſh Settlements at Madraſs, Bengal, China, and Bencoolen, are ſo well fortified and provided with Forces, as to be under no Apprehenſions of Danger from the Deſigns of the French, and that ſeveral Britiſh Men of War were cruiſing off thoſe Places for their better Security.

The Ludlow-Caſtle Man of War is arrived in the Downs, with ſeveral Ships under Convoy, from Virginia.

They write from Stade, that Numbers of Waggons arrived there daily from Hanover, with the Archives and moſt valuable Effects of that Electorate; and alſo, that the Magiſtrates and ſeveral of the Nobility were already arrived there.

Laſt Monday arrived at Plymouth the Emerald Frigate, with 10 Sail of light Victuallers from Lord Anſon's Fleet. The Emerald ſailed again immediately.

We hear there are ſeveral Troops of Light Horſe to be ſent to our Army on the Coaſt of France.

From the LONDON GAZETTE, Auguſt 12.

Whitehall, Auguſt 12. On Thurſday laſt an Officer arrived from Lieutenant-General Bligh, and Captain Howe, with Letters dated the 7th and 8th Inſtant, giving an Account that his Majeſty's Troops had effected a Landing, under Cover of the Frigates and Bomb Ketches, in the Bay des Marais, two Leagues Weſtward of Cherburg, in the Face of a large Body of the Enemy prepared to receive them; and Yeſterday in the Afternoon, Captain Howe's Firſt Lieutenant arrived, with a further Account, that on the 8th Inſtant, in the Evening, Cherburg ſurrendered at Diſcretion, the Enemy having marched out and abandoned the Place on the Approach of his Majeſty's Troops. The ſame Day Lieutenant-General Bligh took Poſſeſſion of the Forts Querqueville, Homet, and La Galette, and hoiſted Engliſh Colours in them. The General was preparing to deſtroy, on the next Day, the Baſon, and the two Piers at the Entrance of the Harbour. There were about [illegible] Ships in the Harbour, and 30 Pieces of fine Braſs Cannon have been taken. Captain Howe, with the Ships under his Command, was in Cherburg Road.

Leghorn, July 21. This Morning arrived here his Majeſty's Ships the Monmouth and Lyme from a Cruize; they have burnt the Prow, a French Frigate of 36 Guns, and 300 Men, near the Iſland of Malta. [Thus far the Gazette.]

CORK, Auguſt 14.

Laſt Friday a Veſſel arrived here from Fyall, bound for Bremen; ſhe ſailed from Rio de Janeiro in laſt January and was there in October, when General Lally, with five French Men of War, and two Frigates, put in there in his Way to the Eaſt-Indies. His Fleet had loſt above 1000 Men from their ſailing from France, and was then ſo ſickly, that General Lally was heard to ſay, that he could not undertake any Thing againſt the Engliſh Settlements without a Reinforcement. On his proceeding from thence, he left an Officer behind, who took his Paſſage in the above Ship for Europe, and died on the Voyage; when, on examining his Papers, a large Packet of Letters were found directed for the French Ambaſſador at Liſbon, to be forwarded to Verſailles, which Letters were laſt Night forwarded to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices of this Kingdom. The above Veſſel on her Paſſage met with 11 Spaniſh Men of War on the 24th of July laſt, in Latitude 40, 7. Longitude 23. 25. from London, ſtanding to the S. E. Note, [illegible] Ships were all clean, and every one of them had new Sails.

DUBLIN, Auguſt 1[illegible].

A Letter from a young Gentleman, on Board the [illegible] Man of War, to his Relations here.

ward of Cherburg; that [illegible] at One in the Morning the Bombs began to play upon Cherburg, and continued playing till Four; at Half paſt Four the Frigates and [illegible] went in cloſe to cover the Landing of the Men, where the [illegible] fired ſeveral Guns, and did the Duty of a [illegible] during the Fire; at Five a [illegible] the Enemy began to play on our Ship, and continued playing all the time we weighed, and ſtood in Shore to the Weſtward; at Eight ſeveral of the Enemy's Troops of Light Horſe, and ſeveral Companies of Infantry, came along Shore from Cherburg, and lodged themſelves behind a Wood cloſe to the Shore, abreaſt of our Ship, where they imagined we would land; at One the Commodore made the Signal, by hoiſting the [illegible] Flag at the Fore-top-gallantmaſt-head, for the Frigates, Bombs, and other ſmall Veſſels, which were cloſe along Shore, to fire, which they did [illegible]ally, and with ſo good Succeſs, that in a ſhort Time we diſlodged the Enemy, ſo that they came running out of the Wood, ſome of the Horſes without their Riders: The Brilliant Frigate was ſo well ſtationed that ſhe killed a great Number as they paſſed her out of the Wood; at Half paſt One we landed the Troops, Half a Mile to the Weſtward of the Firing; at Three our Troops had a few Skirmiſhes and Buſh Firing, in which we had [illegible] killed, and fourteen wounded; there came in To-day ſix Deſerters: On the 8th we landed the Light Horſe and Artillery, between Four and Six in the Morning, and before Eight ſeveral Detachments were diſpatched about the Country; between Eight and One our Troops took Poſſeſſion of ſeveral ſmall Batteries along Shore, and about Two the French left Cherburg, which our Troops took Poſſeſſion of at Three; there are about 50 ſmall Craft in the Harbour, ſuch as Sloops, Brigs, Snows, and the like, beſides the Tyger Privateer of Briſtol, a Dane, and a large Merchantman; there are in the Town two large Magazines of Powder, beſides a Number of Braſs Cannon. Capt. M'Carty, of the Iriſh Brigades, was cut in two by a Shot in our Cannading; there are 24 of the Iriſh Brigades come over to us, and but three Iriſhmen among them, they being compoſed of ſeveral Nations, but all the Officers of the Brigades are Iriſh. General Bligh is an Honour to his Country, in his Behaviour on this Occaſion. To-morrow we blow up all the Batteries and Fortifications, and deſtroy the Baſon and Harbour. I have taken up Part of my four Hours (that I had to ſleep, which is all I had out of 24, being employed up and down) in writing this; you may depend upon the above to be authentic, as I have been an Eye Witneſs of all, and took down the Minutes; I am both ſleepy and weary, ſo muſt conclude, Yours, &c.

BOSTON, October 1[illegible].

Monday laſt arrived here two [illegible], which came out of Halifax about 10 Days before, in Company with ſix others, under Convoy of the Norwich Man of War of 50 Guns; 3 of which with the Norwich, arrived on Friday laſt, and Yeſterday the others arrived alſo: The above Ships have on board a Detachment from the Train of Artillery, Ordnance Stores, &c. that were employed in the Reduction of the Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, as alſo the Officers and Matroſſes of Part of two Companies belonging to the Train.——The Norwich has on board a Quantity of Money for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Forces in theſe Parts.

NEW-YORK, October 16.

Thurſday Night laſt arrived here by Water from Albany, his Excellency General AMHERST, who had the chief Command of the Forces at the Reduction of Cape-Breton; and who afterwards came to Boſton with a Number of Forces, which he marched over Land to Albany, where he arrived ſafe with them the 4th Inſtant, all in Health.—— Early on Friday Morning his Excellency's Arrival was publickly welcomed by a Diſcharge of the Cannon on Copſey Battery, and at Night the whole City was handſomely illuminated, as the Inhabitants were very ſenſible of his Excellency's Generalſhip in the Acquiſition of Cape-Breton and its Dependencies, whereby the Key of the [illegible] is from us, and the [illegible] the North-American Seas, and the [illegible] of Trade [illegible]

PHILADELPHIA, [illegible]

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, [illegible] 1758.

"On the [illegible] ult. we had a hard Gale of Wind [illegible] [illegible] no [illegible] of Vessels, of which the following were lost, viz.

The Brig Friendship, [illegible], of Barbados, Captain Brown.

Snow Jenny, [illegible], [illegible], with her Cargo.

Brig David and Susannah, [illegible], from [illegible].

A Sloop, [illegible], lately belonging to this Island.

Brig Rose, [illegible], of Boston, with [illegible] Cargo [illegible] in.

Sloop Aurora, Capt. Campbell, belonging here.

His Majesty's Sloop Barbadoes, Capt. [illegible], and the Industry, Baily, of this Port, got off. Two [illegible] lost."

Our last Accounts from the Westward are, that the Majors Grant and Lewis, Capt. M'Kinsey, and Ensign Holler, with about [illegible] private Men, had been made Prisoners, and carried into Fort Duquesne, where they were all well used; and the Majors and Capt. M'Kinsey, since sent to Canada; Ensign Holler, being wounded, was kept at the Fort: That Ensign John M'Donald was Prisoner with the Indians, for whom the Governor of the Fort offered another Prisoner, and some Money, but was refused: That Parties of the Enemy Indians were continually hovering about our Encampment at Loyal Hanning, one of which, about 18 Days ago, attacked the Grass Guard, and killed two of our People, but had not Time to scalp them; and the same Party, it is thought, much about the same Time, carried off five or six [illegible] Horses, and killed as many.——A Party of [illegible] had come in, and brought two Scalps [illegible].——Our Troops are in high Spirits.

The following Ships of War, we hear, are to winter at Halifax, viz.

Of the Line. Princess Amelia, Rear Admiral Durell, Captain Bray, of 80 Guns; Bedford, Fowke, 64; Devonshire, Gordon, 66; Vanguard, Swanton, 70; Captain, Amherst, 64; Prince Frederick, Routh, 64; Pembroke, Simcoe, 60; Princess of Orange, Ferguson, 60; Sutherland, Rous, 50; and Norwich, Captain Darby, of 50 Guns.

Frigates. Nightingale, Capt. Campbell, of 24 Guns; Squirrel, Wheelock, 22; Kennington, [illegible], 24; Hind, Bond, 22; and Hunter, Captain Adams, of 12 Guns.

We have Advice from the West-Indies, that the Brig Privateer, Captain Spring, of this Port, had taken two Dutch Sloops, loaded with Sugar and Coffee, and ordered them for this Place; but that one of them was obliged to put into Anguilla, where she was condemned; the other we have no certain Account yet what is become of her.

Captain Burrows, from Jamaica, advises, that two French Merchantmen, one of 20, the other of 18 Guns, with four Snows and Brigantines, all homeward bound, were sent in there, by the Edinburgh and Dreadnought Men of War, on the Eighth of August.

ANNAPOLIS, October 26.

Monday last the General Assembly of this Province met here, when the Honourable the Lower House unanimously made Choice of Col. HENRY HOOPER (a Member for Dorchester County) for their Speaker; and his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; our Governor, opened the Session with the following SPEECH, viz.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

AS many of you are already acquainted with what passed between the Two Houses of Assembly during our last Session, and the Rest of you may easily inform yourselves by recurring to their Journals, I will not enter into a Detail of the Measures which were then pursued; but shall only observe to you, that they were such as unhappily gave Occasion for an odious Distinction to be made between the Inhabitants of Maryland and those of the neighbouring Colonies; and induced his Majesty's General, who were appointed to command his Forces in these Parts, to entertain a very unfavourable Opinion of the People of this Province.

Being however well satisfied myself, that it was far from the Desire of the Public in general, to be excused from contributing their Share for the Expedition, which General Forbes is [illegible] for his Majesty's [illegible] [illegible] Inclination in the People of Maryland to promote the Service, but to an unnatural Difference in Opinion, and an unhappy Disagreement between the Two Houses [illegible] useful would not be the Case at any future [illegible].

By this Representation the General was induced, [illegible] from a Letter of his which shall be laid before you, to advance a Sum of Money on the Credit of the Province, to encourage the Maryland Troops to continue in the Service during the Campaign, and until the Legislature should meet again, and agree on a Bill for reimbursing his Excellency, and paying off the Arrears that might be then due to Lieutenant-Colonel Dagworthy and the Companies under his Command. You will also see, that in Compassion to Mr. Ross, who having Victualled our Troops at Fort Cumberland and Fort Frederick, in Consequence of an Agreement made last Year with the Agents, was greatly distressed by the Assembly's breaking up without putting it in those Gentlemen's Power to pay him, his Excellency hath been pleased to advance him likewise some Money, to support his Credit, until Supplies shall be raised, and the Agents be impowered to pay, what, upon a Settlement, shall appear due to him. I do not exactly know what Mr. Ross's Claim, and the Arrears of Pay that are now due to our Troops, amount to; but I believe the Whole doth not exceed Thirteen or Fourteen Thousand Pounds at the most; a Sum that is very inconsiderable in Comparison of the Supplies which have been granted this Year by the other Colonies for his Majesty's Service, and much less, I am persuaded, than the Inhabitants of this Province can afford, and would chearfully give, for the same Purpose.

Gentlemen,

What has been now communicated to you, I am desired to recommend, in the first Place, to your Consideration; and that your Attention might not be diverted, I decline mentioning any other Matters, until you shall have come to some Resolution with Regard to the General's Letter; to which, I hope, you will very [illegible] to give such an Answer as might convince him that you merit the Confidence he hath been pleased to repose in this Assembly; and that you are determined to demonstrate by your Proceedings, more than by Professions, that you are pleased with the extraordinary Zeal which our Troops have shewn for his Majesty's Service, and the Honour of the Province; and that notwithstanding the Ill Opinion which some, who are Strangers to the real Principles of the Inhabitants of Maryland, have been led to entertain of them, there are not in his Majesty's Dominions, more loyal nor more dutiful Subjects.

[The Addresses to be in our next.]

We have several Accounts from the Westward, of the Action on Loyal Hanning on the 12th Instant; but what we think most likely to be depended on, is the following, from a Soldier, who is just come to Town, and left Ray's-Town on the 20th: That on Friday the 12th about 9 o'Clock in the Morning, about 700 French, and a few Indians, were discovered by our Bullock-Guard, which was commanded by Lieutenant Lewis Beall, consisting of about 40 Men, and a Mile or Mile and Half from the Camp: Lieut. Beall immediately sent a few Men off with the Beeves to the Camp, and Advice to Col. Bouquet, and with the Remainder of his Party Fought Retiring, so as to prevent the Enemy's making themselves Masters of the Cattle; in his Retreat he lost 7 of his Men and some more of them were Wounded. As soon as Col. Bouquet was advised of the Enemy's being so near, he ordered all his Men under Arms, and when Lieutenant Beall, with his Party, was come within 2 or 300 Yards of the Breast-work, the Enemy pursuing him, he was ordered to fall with his Men to the Left, which he did instantly, and [illegible] Cannon, which had been planted on the Breast-work, were then Fired on the Enemy, and did great Execution; upon this the Enemy fled with Precipitation; and a great Number of our Troops, the Highlanders in particular, being ordered to pursue, (which they did Six Miles) killed between [illegible] and 200 of them, (among them [illegible]) and took [illegible] Prisoners: [illegible] when Mr. [illegible] Colonel [illegible], and Mr. [illegible] the Third, [illegible]. The Prize [illegible] Next Day the County Purse, [illegible] was won by [illegible] the [illegible] Heats.

JAMES BISSET, Attorney at Law, takes this Method of Thanking the Public for their favourable Reception of his Proposals, for Publishing his ABRIDGMENT of the LAWS of MARYLAND. And begs of the Gentlemen who were so good as to exert themselves in procuring Subscriptions, that they would be pleased to send in their Subscription Papers to Mr. William Stewart, in Annapolis, by the first of January next, as then (having got enough of Subscriptions to enable him to go on with the Work) he proposes to send his Copy to be Printed.

As the List of the Subscribers is to be prefixed to the Copy, he asks the Favour of those who have the Subscription Papers, that they would distinguish the Gentlemen who have subscribed, by their Titles or Callings, and the County they live in.

Whoever have not as yet subscribed, and chuse to have their Names in the List, let them subscribe before the first of January, or send a Note of their Names to Mr. Stewart.

N. B. The Reason of delaying the Printing so long, is, that, to make his Abridgment the more compleat, he is to include in it what Acts may be past this ensuing Session of Assembly.

JAMES BISSET.

HAGUE, Auguſt 8.

ON the 2d Inſtant the French were diſlodged from Bruggen: Prince Ferdinand made a Feint immediately afterwards, as if he intended to attack the Enemy near Dulken, who giving into the Snare, marched from Dalen to Gladbach, and Prince Ferdinand turned off immediately towards Aldekirchen and Heering. The 3d Inſtant his Serene Highneſs marched to Wachtendonck, where the French had a ſtrong Poſt, which the hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, at the Head of the Grenadiers of the Army, attacked Sword in Hand, and drove the French from thence by ſeven o'Clock in the Evening, with the Loſs of only two Grenadiers. The Army remained that Night near Wachtendonck, and the [illegible] Day, being the 4th Inſtant, Prince Ferdinand marched to Rhynberg, by which the Rhine is again ſecured. While this Operation was performing, Prince Ferdinand reinforced General Imhoff (who commands at Rees) with those Troops which were in and about Cleves. This Step was extremely well timed; for on the ſame Day, that he marched to Rhynberg, Lieutenant General Chevert, who had failed in his Attempt to ſurprize Duſſeldorp, having been reinforced by Part of the Garriſon of Weſel, marched towards Rees, with 14 Battalions, 5 Squadrons and 12 Pieces of Cannon, in order to deſtroy the Bridge upon the Rhine, and to ſurprize General Imhoff. The latter was not only upon his Guard, but advanced to meet the Enemy with 6 Battalions and 4 Squadrons, came to Action with them, and after a ſmart Engagement, in which the Allied Troops behaved with their uſual Bravery, he entirely routed M. de Chevert, took eleven or twelve Pieces of Cannon, [illegible] ſtandards, and [illegible] Priſoners. The Remains [illegible] towards Weſel. This Action [illegible] which was very [illegible] and the General who commanded the French, paſſes for the Ableſt and the moſt Enterprizing of their whole Army.

Advice is juſt received that Prince Ferdinand has marched to [illegible], by which all his Communications are again opened, and that M. de Contades has been [illegible] he has [illegible] We [illegible] further [illegible] from the Army, but have not the leaſt Reaſon to doubt of the Truth of the above Accounts; which add likewiſe that the Engliſh Troops were to paſs the Rhine at Rees [illegible] the 11th Inſtant.

By the Accounts from Heſſe Caſſel, the Prince of Iſenbourg had aſſembled [illegible] that had been diſperſed [illegible] for the [illegible] of their Country; he has been reinforced [illegible] Troops and Militia, ſo that his Force is more conſiderable than it was, and he is marched [illegible] about 2000 Men [illegible] make his Retreat, till after a Thouſand of his Men were ſlain, and a great Number wounded. The ſame Day (of the Battle which the French bought with the Loſs of 2000 of their Troops) the Prince of Iſenbourg retired with the Remainder of his Corps to Hamelen, where he arrived in good Order, without having been at all purſued in his Retreat. The above Defeat is imputed to the Militia of the Country, who are accuſed of not having ſuſtained the regular Troops as they ought to have done.

Lippſtadt, July 30. The following are ſome Particulars of the Action between the Heſſians and the Van Guard of Soubiſe's Army.

The Prince of Iſenbourg paſſed the Fulda the 21ſt Inſtant, within a League of Caſſel, and after breaking down the Bridge on which he croſſed over, he took Poſt near the Village of Sanderſhauſen, in order to obſerve from thence the Motions of the French. The Corps under Fiſcher, being Part of their Van Guard, arrived the 22d on the Hills near Caſſel, and the next Morning two Battalions of French entered the City. Towards Noon a Corps of about 6000 Foot traverſed it haſtily; and 2000 Horſe having forded the River Fulda, began ſoon after to ſkirmiſh with the Heſſian Hunters, and followed them as far as the Hills of Sanderſhauſen. The Prince of Iſenbourg, who was poſted there with between 6 and 7000 Men, ordered the Hunters to be ſupported; and the Engagement becoming general towards 2 o'Clock, the Fire was extremely briſk on both Sides, and laſted till Sunſet; when the Heſſians, finding themſelves on the Point of being ſurrounded by the French Cavalry, reſolved upon a Retreat towards [illegible], which they executed in very good Order. But, after this Action, too weak to make head againſt their Enemy's ſuperior Forces, they marched to Hamelen, from whence, 'tis thought, they will go and join the Army under Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick.

LONDON, Auguſt [illegible].

It is ſaid his Majeſty has given Orders for every Man throughout the Electorate of Hanover, who is able to bear Arms, from 60 Years of Age down to 15, to be immediately armed and accoutred, in order to prevent the French from again penetrating into that Electorate.

Letters from Cadiz mention the taking of 16 Spaniſh Merchant [illegible] the Algerines, and 5 in the Bay of [illegible] their Trade.

Yeſterday ſix Waggons loaded with Arms and Ammunition were ſent from the Tower [illegible] for the Militia of [illegible] County. So that [illegible] being [illegible] in Arms to defend their Country.

Aug. [illegible] a Reſolution was taken to puſh the War with the utmoſt Vigour, both by Land and Sea.

Laſt Wedneſday arrived [illegible] Privateer, [illegible] and brought in with her a Spaniſh Ship of 250 Tons, [illegible] with 1200 Barrels of Flour, [illegible]

Men killed, many taken Priſoners, and loſt eleven Pieces of Cannon; but that the Communication is now open between the Engliſh Troops and Prince Ferdinand's Army. The Engliſh were within two Days March of joining him.

Whitehall, Aug. 11. A Meſſenger, who arrived here laſt Saturday, brought Letters from Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick's Head-Quarters at Santen, dated the 6th Inſtant; which fully confirm the above Account from the Hague of the Operations of his Highneſs's Army, and of the Action between General Imhoff and M. de Chevert.

Extract from the London Chronicle of June 24.

Laſt Thurſday Morning died at Coggeſhall, in Eſſex, Mr. JOHN HANBURY, of this City, Merchant, not more eminent for his Diligence, Punctuality, and Succeſs in Trade, than truly amiable for the unaffected Simplicity of his Manners, the Cheerfulneſs of his Converſation, and the Integrity of his Heart. In domeſtic Life, his Memory muſt be long revered, as a kind Maſter, a tender Parent, and a faithful Friend. In the buſy World, he merited invariably that unlimited Confidence repoſed in him; and from the [illegible] Dignity of his Addreſs (ſincere, yet affable, plain, but perſuaſive) frequently [illegible] to his Advice, or Sollicitation, which artful Politeneſs cringes for in vain. Deception, indeed, was not his Talent; for he lived and died an Honour to the Principles of his Education, to his Profeſſion as a Merchant, and to his Species as a Man.

BOSTON, October 16.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Cole arrived here in 7 Days from Louiſbourg, and by a Gentleman who came Paſſenger, we have the following Intelligence, That Admiral Hardy and General Wolfe were returned with the Men of War and Tranſports from the Expedition againſt Gaſpee, having deſtroyed all the Houſes, (which were but few) Shallops, Boats, &c. that they found there, and laid Waſte all the Fiſh Flakes, and every Thing elſe that could be of Service to the Enemy at that Settlement. They alſo found there about [illegible] Quintals of [illegible] Cod Fiſh, ſome of which they brought off with them, the reſt they deſtroyed. The Inhabitants were all retired up into the Country, having before received Intelligence of our Forces coming againſt them, but that [illegible] on board the Tranſports, and with the Men of War proceeded above thirty Leagues up the River St. Lawrence, where they took two Sloops, one of which was laden with great Quantity of Proviſions, Gun Powder, and ſome Furr, the other Sloop was in Ballaſt; they informed, that 6 Sail of French Men of War of the Line, were at Quebec, and that they intended to ſail from thence for France ſome Time in the Month of October; upon which Information Admiral Hardy returned with the whole Fleet to Louiſburg: The Boreas Frigate and a Fireſhip, with all the Tranſports, came thro' the Gutt of Canſo, and arrived at Louiſburg three Days before the Admiral:—That on Sunday the firſt of this Inſtant, the Admirals Boſcawen and Hardy, with 8 Sail of the Line, ſailed for England, but that they intended to cruize at the Entrance of St. Lawrence River, in hopes of meeting with the above French Fleet.——That Admiral Durell was left at Louiſburg with 10 Sail of the Line, two of which are to winter there, and the Reſt at Halifax.——And, That the City has been clean'd of all the Filth and Rubbiſh, and the Houſes repairing with the greateſt Diſpatch; that the Garriſon was very healthy, and were well ſupplied with Proviſions of all Kinds.

Friday laſt Capt. Dewar arrived here, in about 9 Weeks from Cadiz, and informs, that the Spaniſh Flota was ſafe arrived there, immenſely rich, to the Joy of all Nations; and that the Spaniſh Fleet was ſailed, but ſuppoſed only to exerciſe the Seamen.

NEW-HAVEN, October 14.

Laſt Week came to Town Capt. Daniel Robbins, junr. of Weathersfield, late Maſter of the Brig Recovery, who informs, That on his Paſſage from St. Martins to Maryland, he on the 22d of July laſt in Lat. 26. N. Lon. 69. was taken by a French Letter of Marque Brig, the next Day Ranſomed his Veſſel for fifteen Hundred Pieces of Eight; after his Arrival at Maryland, he took in a Cargo, and ſailed from Annapolis on the 11th of September for Madeira, on the 18th following, about 3 o'Clock in the Morning, he had a violent Gale of Wind at N. E. on which his Veſſel ſoon ſprung a Leak and ſunk; the People betook themſelves to their Boat, and three Days after they arrived at Cape Henlopen, without the Loſs of a Life.

NEW-YORK, October 23.

Yeſterday was ſent in here by the Privateer Ship Oliver-Cromwell, Capt. Nicholl, a French Snow from Miſſiſſippi, bound to Cape-François, in Ballaſt: He took her the 23d of September; and two Days before, he fell in with, and took, the Letter of Marque Ship Jaſon, of 14 Six-pounders and 50 Men, Monſieur Bertrand, Commander, from Quebec for Cape-François, after a ſmart Engagement of 4 Glaſſes, in which Capt. Nicholl had 4 Men killed, and 13 wounded, and was much diſabled in his Maſts, Yards and Rigging.

Before Capt. Bertrand fell in with Capt. Nicholl, he had taken the Snow Enterprize, Capt. Ogilvie, from this Port, for St. Kitts; a Sloop from Fyal, for Halifax, John Hathorn, Maſter, belonging to Salem; a Sloop from Jamaica for London, belonging to Boſton, but ranſomed; and a Sloop from South-Carolina, for Barbados, Ebenezer Turell Maſter. Captain Ogilvie came in the Snow, and the Ship Captain Nicholl intended to diſpatch for this Port the 25th of September, ſo that ſhe may be hourly expected.

Saturday Night laſt, his Majeſty's 17th and 27th Regiments of Foot, arrived here from Albany. They both ſet ſail Yeſterday Evening; the former for Philadelphia, and the latter for New-Jerſey.

The French, we are told, have many ſcouting Parties about Fort-Edward, Lake-George, Half-Way-Brook, and Fort-Miller. A Serjeant of the Rangers was ſcalped a few Days ago within two Miles of the Lake; and the twelfth Inſtant a Regular was taken off from the Encampment at Fort-Edward. A Provincial was taken away about the ſame Time by two Indians; and after he had marched 1 Day with them, at Night he made his Eſcape, by cutting himſelf free from the Tree he was bound to.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 13.

The SPEECH of the Honourable FRANCIS FAUQUIER, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, at the Cloſe of the Seſſion.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

THE Proviſion you have made for the Protection of the Frontiers, during this Receſs, claims the Thanks of your Country; and the great Regard and Attention you have ſhewed to me, during the Courſe of it, demand my particular Acknowledgments.

That I may employ the Forces deſigned for your Defence in the moſt proper and efficacious Manner, I ſhall make it my Buſineſs, during the Receſs of the General Aſſembly, to get at the beſt Knowledge I am able to attain in relation to the Frontiers, and the proper Stations in which to place the Troops.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

The Caution you have taken in raiſing the Supplies, that the People may not be oppreſſed at this Time, is a freſh Inſtance of your Tenderneſs for your Country; and it ſhall be my Endeavour to follow ſo good an Example, by taking all poſſible Care that not one Penny be expended wantonly: And you may be aſſured, that I will take a proper Opportunity to write to the Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces, agreeably to the Addreſs I received from you for that Purpoſe.

Gentlemen of the Council and of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I hope we ſhall always meet in the ſame happy Diſpoſition of Mind to do all in our Power to defend the People, and remove all Obſtructions to the Trade of this Colony, by every Meaſure which will conduce thereto.

That you may have a proper Time for the Diſcharge of your private Functions, it is convenient you ſhould be now prorogued, and you are accordingly prorogued to the Third Thurſday in December next.

PHILADELPHIA, October 26.

On Thurſday laſt Capt. William George arrived here in the Sloop Ruby, belonging to New-London, homeward bound from St. Martins with Salt, but taken on this Coaſt by the Prince Edward Frigate, of St. Maloes, Capt. Sebiere du Chaſteleau, pierced for 36 Guns, but mounted only 26, a very large Ship, and ſails well.

Capt. George was Mate of the Recovery, Capt. Stephenſon, bound to this Port from Londonderry, which Veſſel was taken by the above Frigate on the 19th of May laſt, and ranſomed, and he carried to Quebec as Ranſomer, where he has been ever ſince.

This Gentleman informs us, that he left Quebec about 42 Days ago in ſaid Frigate, in Company with ſix Ships of War of 64 Guns each, two other Frigates, a Privateer, and five Merchantmen; the Men of War deſigned home, but not half manned, and very ſickly; the Merchantmen bound to the Cape: That the Prince Edward left the Fleet ſoon for the Weſt-Indies, but took a Cruize on this Coaſt in his Way, when he made the following Veſſels Prizes.

On the 4th of October he took Capt. Peter Dobſon, in the Sloop Nancy, from New-York for St. Thomas's, in Ballaſt, and burnt her the next Day.

The 7th Captain Archibald Hamilton, in the Snow Dutcheſs of Douglaſs, for Maryland from Boſton, was taken, and burnt likewiſe.

The 9th Capt. John Lee, in the Brig Globe, of this Port, deſigned for Montſerrat, was brought to, and ſent to Canada.

The 10th he took Captain John Atkins, in the Ship Betty, from Liverpool and Newbury for Virginia, with ſome Bale Goods on board, and ordered her alſo to Canada.

On the 14th Captain Benjamin Mather, in the Sloop Ruby, from St. Martins for New-London, laden with Salt, was taken likewiſe.

And the ſame Day he took Capt. Thomas Gordon Stall, in the Sloop Rebecca, from Cape-François for Rhode-Iſland, her Lading Rum and Melaſſes, and diſpatched her to Canada alſo.

All the Priſoners were uſed in the moſt humane and genteel Manner by the French Captain, and were ſent up in the Sloop (49 in Number) and had Plenty of every Thing to bring them up here.

Capt. George further informs, that they were in great Want of Proviſions in Canada laſt Winter, each Man having only an Allowance of two Ounces of Bread for 24 Hours: That likewiſe Two and Three Thouſand of the French Neutrals periſhed there, not being allowed what was common with the Inhabitants, but their Subſiſtence chiefly Horſe-fleſh: That there ſeemed to be no great Plenty among them when he came away, though their Crops were tolerably good, but much neglected for want of Hands to get them in, all the Men fit to bear Arms being ſent to the Frontiers; and that what Grain they had was collected into public Granaries, without any Regard paid to the particular Owners of it, and given out in Proportion to every one by [illegible] [illegible] Soldiers from France this Summer, except about 180, that were on board the Frigate [illegible] him, and another Veſſel: That there were above 300 in the two Ships, but they were ſeized with a malignant Fever on the Paſſage, which carried off [illegible], and thoſe that got in, were landed in a very ſickly Condition: That on receiving the News of the Reduction of Cape-Breton they were much diſpirited, and imagine, that if the War continues another Year, they will loſe their whole Country, on which Account many of them were diſpoſing of their Effects, and preparing to go home as ſoon as poſſible: That he had not heard of the Deſtruction of Frontenac (great Pains being taken to keep ſuch Things from the Priſoners) but believes, from the Sadneſs of their Countenances, that they had Notice thereof, and that they ſeemed to be prodigiouſly ſhocked with it: That he thinks there are about 300 Engliſh Priſoners at Quebec, and that there may be about the ſame Number at Montreal: And that he ſaw the worthy Colonel SCHUYLER there, who was in good Health, and, from his benevolent Diſpoſition, proved a great Bleſſing to many of his unhappy Countrymen, whoſe Wants were always ſupplied by him.

The Frigate had but about 100 Hands when ſhe left Quebec, and not above 60 when the Priſoners parted with her; ſo that ſhe would ſoon be obliged to leave the Coaſt.

Since our laſt we have had ſeveral Accounts of an Attack being made by the French on our advanced Poſt at Loyal Hanning, one of which is as follows.

Extract of a Letter from Rays-Town, October 15.

"Yeſterday the Troops fired on Account of our Succeſs over the Enemy, who attacked our advanced Poſt at Loyal Hanning the 12th Inſtant, their Number, by the Information of a Priſoner taken, ſaid to be about 1100. The Engagement began at Eleven o'Clock, A. M. and laſted till Two. They renewed the Attack thrice, but our Troops ſtood their Ground, and behaved with the greateſt Bravery and Firmneſs at their different Poſts, repulſing the Enemy each Time; notwithſtanding which, they did not quit the Inveſtment that Night, but continued firing random Shots during that Time. This has put our Troops in good Spirits. The Accounts are hitherto imperfect, which obliged the General to ſend a diſtinct Officer Yeſterday to Loyal Hanning, to learn a true Account of the Affair. By the General's Information, they only took one wounded Soldier, and ſays nothing of the Killed, tho' it is imagined to be very conſiderable, if they attacked in the open Manner it is reported they did. Colonel Bouquet was at Stony-Creek, with 700 Men, and a Detachment of Artillery. He could get no further on account of the Roads, which indeed has impeded every Thing greatly. This Night or To-morrow a [illegible] Number of Waggons will be up with Proviſions. A Liſt of the Killed, Wounded and Miſſing in the Action.

ANNAPOLIS, November 2.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND,

The humble ADDRESS of the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE extraordinary Zeal which our Troops, under many diſcouraging Circumſtances, have ſhewn for his Majeſty's Service, and the Credit of their Country, gives us the greateſt Pleaſure; and we ſhall, on our Part, moſt chearfully agree to repay the Money which hath been expended for their neceſſary Support, as well as on Mr. Roſs's Account, whoſe Confidence in the Honour of the Province ought not to turn to his Diſadvantage.

We are extremely ſorry that any Occaſion has been given for an odious Diſtinction to be made between the Inhabitants of Maryland and thoſe of the neighbouring Colonies, and are obliged to your Excellency for the juſt Repreſentation you made of the Diſpoſition of the People of this Province, whoſe Principles might be doubted among Strangers unacquainted with the real Springs of Public Proceedings, and judging only from remote and fallacious Appearances. The abundant Proofs we have already given your Excellency of our ſincere Diſpoſition to advance his Majeſty's Service, make it unneceſſary for us to aſſure you at this Time of our Determination to hold the ſame Conduct.

We beg Leave to return your Excellency our warmeſt Thanks for your Care of the Frontier Inhabitants during the laſt Summer; a Service diſcouraged by ſo many diſagreeable Circumſtances, and attended with ſo much Hardſhip and Fatigue, that very Few in your Situation wou'd have undertaken it with the Alacrity, and ſuſtained it with the Patience, your Excellency has done.

Indeed the Meaſures which your Prudence ſuggeſted, your Example recommended, and your Activity ſupported, have very conſiderably promoted the Common Cauſe; as they enabled the General to draw into the Field thoſe Troops which wou'd have been neceſſarily left for the Defence of Fort Cumberland, had not your Excellency undertaken to garriſon that Place with Voluntiers, (whoſe Spirit on this Occaſion can't be too much commended) and commanded them in Perſon.

We ſhould take the Liberty of recommending to your Excellency's particular Countenance thoſe Gentlemen of Frederick County, who have diſtinguiſhed themſelves in ſeconding your Excellency's Purpoſe, if we were not ſatisfied that the Merit of ſuch a laudable Conduct is the ſtrongeſt Recommendation to your Excellency's Regard.

B. TASKER, Preſident.

October 25, 1758.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Upper Houſe of Aſſembly,

I RETURN you Thanks for your very obliging Addreſs, and particularly for your Promiſe that you will, on your Part, moſt chearfully agree to repay the Money, which hath been advanced by the General to Mr. Roſs, as well as other Sums [illegible] expended for the neceſſary Support of our Troops, whoſe Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and the Honour of the Province, I was confident you would commend.

It gives me great Satisfaction to be aſſured that the Steps which have been taken, ſince May laſt, for the Security of our Frontier Inhabitants, [illegible] with Regard to the Behaviour of the Militia in general, who have ſerved this Summer under my Command, and to the laudable Spirit which many of the Gentlemen of Frederick County in particular ſhewed, when it was intimated to them that the General had determined to garriſon Fort Cumberland for a few Weeks, with ſome of the Militia of this Province.

HOR^O. SHARPE.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND,

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of DELEGATES.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the Freemen of Maryland, in Aſſembly convened, return your Excellency our Thanks for your Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion.

We are moſt of us well acquainted with what paſſed between the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſlature at their late Seſſions, and are convinced that the Lower Houſe, by their Proceedings, gave no Countenance to the odious Diſtinction that has been made between the Inhabitants of Maryland and thoſe of the neighbouring Colonies; and that his Majeſty's Generals, when they ſhall have an Opportunity and Candidly to [illegible] will [illegible] be induced to entertain a [illegible] Opinion of the Inhabitants of this Province.

As the Inclinations of the People in general, are beſt known by the Conduct and Behaviour of their Repreſentatives in Aſſembly, we muſt expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to your Excellency for the Aſſurance you have been pleaſed to give General Forbes of their good Inclinations to promote his Majeſty's Service in the Expedition he was about to undertake; and tho' unhappily the Houſes of Aſſembly have heretofore differed in Opinion on the Mode of raiſing the neceſſary Supplies, we rejoice to find your Excellency now expreſſing Hopes, that the like Difference may not happen at this or any future Seſſion.

We ſhall immediately take under our Conſideration, the Matters recommended to us by your Excellency's Speech, and the General's Letter; and ſhall give his Majeſty's Service in general, and the Defence and Protection of this Province in particular, the firſt Place in our Determinations; and we cannot but entertain the warmeſt Hopes, that our Reſolutions thereupon will demonſtrate, that notwithſtanding any ill Opinion Strangers to the real Principles of the People of this Province may have entertained, his Majeſty has not, in any of his Dominions, Subjects more loyal or more dutiful than are much the greateſt Part of the People of Maryland; whoſe conſtant Wiſhes and Endeavours to promote his Majeſty's Service, have, on every Occaſion, been manifeſted by the Public Actions, as well as Profeſſions of thoſe, to whom their Lives, Liberties and Properties, have been repeatedly entruſted.

H. HOOPER, Speaker.

October 25, 1758.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly,

I THANK you for your Promiſe to take General Forbes's Letter into Conſideration, agreeable to my Deſire; and ſhall be very glad if your Reſolutions thereupon convince him, that the Inhabitants of Maryland, or if you pleaſe much the greateſt Part of them, whoſe Inclinations will, I hope, for their own Sakes, be judged of by your Conduct and Behaviour during this Seſſion, and not by the Proceedings of the late Lower Houſe, are really ſuch as I thought it my Duty to repreſent them when I endeavoured to remove the Prejudices, which his Excellency and many others of his Majeſty's Officers, ſeemed to have conceived againſt them.

HOR^O. SHARPE.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer at Fort Cumberland, dated October 17.

" On Sunday laſt an Expreſs arrived at Rays-Town from Loyal Hanning, with an Account of a Body of the Enemy, to the Number of 1200, who came down and firſt fell upon the Cattle Guard, with an Intention, I ſuppoſe, to carry them off; but they were beat off, and the Cattle preſerved. They next marched up and attacked the Breaſt-Works, which they did Three different Times, and were as often beat back with great Loſs; the true State of which is not yet known, there being different Reports made of it, but all agree it was conſiderable. A Liſt of the Loſs on our Side, ſhall briefly give you, which I met with at Ray's-Town, viz. Highlanders, 1 Private killed, and 1 wounded. Firſt Virginia Regiment, Lieutenant Duncanſon wounded, and 1 Serjeant; 4 killed and 4 wounded Privates. Penſylvanians, 1 Private killed, and 4 miſſing. Marylanders, Lieutenants Thomas Prather and Matthews, and 5 Privates, killed; Enſign Beall and 1 Serjeant wounded. North-Carolinians, 5 miſſing. Lower Counties, 1 miſſing. On Monday a ſecond Expreſs came to the General, on Receipt of which there was a Feu de Joye ordered, from which it was generally believed we had given them a hearty Drubbing. I am, &c."

We hear that his Excellency General Forbes was certainly to march from Ray's-Town, with the Rear of his Army, the 23d of laſt Month; ſo that we may expect to know before the End of this Month at fartheſt, whether the French or ſome of our Troops are to take up their Winter Quarters at Fort Duqueſne.

The Soldier who gave us the Account from Loyal Hanning (inſerted in our laſt) proves to be a Deſerter, and an impudent lying Scoundrel, for there was no Truth in his Information.

Sunday laſt arrived here the Ship Betſey, Capt. Andrews, from Briſtol, with a Number of Convicts. Capt. Andrews has brought us ſome Engliſh Papers, the Bath [illegible] to Auguſt [illegible] which we have taken the following:

LONDON, Auguſt 18.

THIS Morning Capt. Edgcombe, and Capt. Amherſt, arrived Expreſs from Admiral Boſcawen, and Major General Amherſt, with an Account, That on the 26th of July M. le Chevalier Drucour, Governor of Louiſbourg, ſurrendered that Place by Capitulation.

Auguſt 19. This Morning two Officers arrived with Letters from General Bligh and Capt. Howe, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, dated Cherburg the 16th and 17th Inſtant, giving an Account, that his Majeſty's Forces, after having compleatly demoliſhed the Baſon, Piers and Harbour of Cherburg, and deſtroyed all the Batteries, Forts, Magazines and Stores, at that Place, and along the Coaſt, were re-imbarked, without the leaſt Oppoſition from the Enemy, in order to purſue the farther Objects of his Majeſty's Inſtructions. Twenty-two fine Braſs Cannon, and two Braſs Mortars, have been ſent to England; and 173 Iron Cannon, and Iron Mortars, were deſtroyed.

Bath, Auguſt 21. Saturday Night there were the greateſt Acclamations of Joy ever known, in this City, on Account of Admiral Boſcawen's taking Poſſeſſion of Louiſbourg and Prince Ferdinand's repaſſing the Rhine.

We hear from Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, that Saturday laſt, on receiving the Gazette Extraordinary, which confirmed the agreeable News of the Surrender of Louiſbourg, the Bells were immediately rung: In the Evening the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Town, aſſembled at the Angel Inn, and drank many loyal Healths; and there were Illuminations, Bonfires, and other Demonſtrations of Joy, on the Occaſion.

JAMES BISSET, Attorney at Law, takes this Method of Thanking the Public for their favourable Reception of his Propoſals, for Publiſhing his ABRIDGMENT of the LAWS of MARYLAND. And begs of the Gentlemen who were ſo good as to exert themſelves in procuring Subſcriptions, that they would be pleaſed to ſend in their Subſcription Papers to Mr. William Stewart, in Annapolis, by the firſt of January next, as then (having got enough of Subſcriptions to enable him to go on with the Work) he propoſes to ſend his Copy to be Printed.

As the Liſt of the Subſcribers is to be prefixed to the Copy, he aſks the Favour of thoſe who have the Subſcription Papers, that they would diſtinguiſh the Gentlemen who have ſubſcribed, by their Titles or Callings, and the County they live in.

Whoever have not as yet ſubſcribed, and chuſe to have their Names in the Liſt, let them ſubſcribe before the firſt of January, or ſend a Note of their Names to Mr. Stewart.

N. B. The Reaſon of delaying the Printing ſo long, is, that, to make his Abridgment the more compleat, he is to include in it what Acts may be paſt this enſuing Seſſion of Aſſembly.
